SAFETY GUIDELINES

- Do not expose the product to fine solid objects such as dust, dirt, and sand.
- Do not expose the product to open flames such as stoves, candles, or fireplaces.
- Do not expose the product to extremely high or low temperatures, such as leaving it in direct sunlight or in snowy weather for extended periods of time.
- Do not crush, bend, deform, or put a high degree of pressure on the product. This can damage the cushion and plastic molding.
- Do not drop the product, especially on hard surfaces. It may cause damage to the product. Inspect your product for visual damage before each use.
- Replace the facial interface if it becomes worn or cannot be cleaned.
- Dispose the product in accordance with your local environmental laws and guidelines.
- Stop use of product if you observe any skin irritation or other skin reactions. If symptoms persist, contact a medical profession.
- This product is not classified as a medical device and is not intended to treat or ameliorate diseases or conditions of any kind.

MAINTENANCE AND USE

- Regularly sanitize the facial interface with a damp soft cloth or use alcohol-free antibacterial wipes to prevent dirt buildup and avoid skin irritation.
- Make sure you wipe clean the facial interface both from outside (silicone cushion) and inside surfaces (plastic molding). Do not wash or soak the facial interface.
- Keep your face clean and dry when wearing using the facial interface to avoid deteriorating the quality of the foam cushions.
- Store facial interface in their original packaging or storage case when not in use to minimize unintentional damage or environment exposure.
- Handle with care. Do not drop or bend the facial interface.
